International Cooperation

Conexx-Europe is a non-profit association based in Brussels that helps to

Create

Sustain

Enhance

the cooperative relationship between Europe and Latin America

We currently have partners in Spain, Italy, France, Argentina, Bolivia, Ecuador, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Guatemala and Mexico.

We are interested in the transfer of scientific knowledge into practice
→ taking it to the local territory ←

Science Against POVERTY

Conexx-Europe is a center associated with the

Climate change & Earth Observation/ GEO

Our expertise and capabilities relevant to water climate change

HOW: By linking different sectors → States, Universities, Business and Civil society.

- ✓ We are connected to over 150 Universities in Latin America and Europe
- ✓ 120 NGOs and business sectors in the two regions

Research and local development: And we are interested in working on these issues in a systematic manner.

As an example of a project: Local empowered stakeholders implement actions for adaptation and mitigation to climate change in the micro binational basin Anchalay - Bald (Peru - Ecuador) with a sustainable and reproducible model.
